- Collaborate with Program Coordinators on logistics and financial management needs including booking international and domestic air travel, hotels, buses, meals, meeting spaces
- Work in conjunction with Program Director and Legacy's financial team to maintain the project budget, request cash advances, and per diems. Assist with expense tracking and in-kind donations.
- Co-design and manage curriculum for TechGirls including pre-departure, in-program, and Community Action Project phases.
- Coordinate the Washington DC week events - speakers, panels, meetings, and sightseeing in conjunction with the team.
- Work with the Program Director to identify and set-up customized meetings as needed (funders, Embassies, media)

As a TechGirls Regional Coordinator:

- Coordinate one or two regions of the world working with the U.S. embassies in each country as it relates to youth selection, pre-departure orientation, flights and escorts, community project tracking and alumni engagement
- Select and orient “Local Engagement Coordinators” in each country who assist with youth selection, logistical arrangements for visa procurement, domestic travel, reimbursements, international travel and project mentoring.
- Work with Legacy’s community host partners (U.S.) and maintain program standards for host family selection, job shadow placements, community service components and panel discussions.
- Oversee Community Action Project coaching of and implementation by TechGirls

As a TechGirls In-Person Program Administrator:

- Manage an hour-by-hour master schedule for the in-person program
- Collaborate with the Program Director to set the tone and problem solve for the entire staff team during the in-person program
- Coordinate staff team and daily work priorities during in-person programming
- Assist in the submission of required programmatic semi-annual reports on program delivery and successes
- Contribute to program monitoring and evaluation and summarizing feedback for DOS reports
- Work with Program Director to interview and select summer staff
